

Xiu Xiu, Rose Of Sharon

It's light outside when you finally see a quiet failure sleeping next to you don't think

don't try
don't rush away

when i say you deserve less you try so hard to be as sweet as you can for me but i don't see you for who you are rose of sharon in my failing light ringless finger pretend you don't know how you stand it cause you know you are nobody

don't try
