

Xiu Xiu, The Fox & The Rabbit

I like people who are wrong could you then feel like I do Collossus bestrides the haves and have nots go softly this is being sung for you

wake up wake up
the wish you made is plucked
go out get up
you've done enough enough
to take the time to cuss
you've seen enough enough

do you think that you deserve it?

I am waiting here for you looking out across the brooke my hands resting on my chest but still I stare into the night

go out get up

when the fox hears the rabbit cry he comes running but not to help
