

xLooking Forwardx, For Those Who Believe

We can't thank you enough for all you've done.
For all the ways you've helped us out.
Taking on projects we know aren't fun.
Because you believe in what we're about.
You open up your heart or your home.
You fix our van and you won't take pay.
It feels so good to know we aren't alone.
We want to take this chance to truly say:
Thank you, thank you for holding us close.
Inside your hearts each time we leave.
It's your faith in us that matters most.
So we sing this song for those who believe.
I can't thank you enough for being who you are.
For sticking with me right by my side.
No matter where I am, how near or far.
You fill my heart with joy and pride.
So I'll do my best to make this worth while.
And try to make a difference when I'm away.
For me, you've always gone the extra mile.
I want to take this chance to say to you:
And when you lay down your head at night.
Say a prayer for us that the van runs right.
And that the show will go off all fun and no fights.
Just keep us in mind when you turn out the lights.
It means the world to us to know that you believe in what we do.
And that you've got our backs no matter where we go.
I swear we couldn't do this at all is if it weren't for you.
We can't thank you enough for all you've done.
For all the ways you've helped us out.
Taking on projects we know aren't fun.
Because you believe in what we're about.
