XTC, Too Many Cooks In The Kitchen

There's too many cooks in the kitchen
There's too many minds on the job
There's too many cooks in the kitchen
Everybody wants a piece of the action
Cooking the books and getting their fractions wrong

What we need is law and order Everybody knows Can't have chiefs without the injuns Stepping on their toes

There's too many cooks in the kitchen There's too many daps in the pie There's too many cooks in the kitchen Everybody needs a place in the rat race Playing games of power, it's only a cat chase

Too many too many too many etc. Too many cooks in the kitchen
