

Xymox, Soul Free

Behind every line, behind every word
You hid a meaning, you hid a meaning
You try and make me doubt
You try and make it out
Like a game of hide and seek
I just turn my other cheek

When the sun gets high
I touch the sky
I am feeling so free, soulfree

Today I don't know how
Our friendship corroded
You vanished from my sight
You vanished from my life
I keep on sending postcards
It took me a while to realize
You're no friend of mine

When the sun gets high
I touch the sky
I am feeling so free, so free
Soulfree, soulfree...
