

Yam, Dot dot dot

verse 1

it's not fair

why did it have to happen?

do they care?

i wasn't ready for anything

like this

now it's over and done...

chorus

it's not the right time for this (and i)

i'm not ready to let you go (do you know)

did you know o did you know? (how much)

how much we miss you...

verse 2

i regret

having not spent enough time with you

now it's gone

i know it's not much but it's

what we had

o i wish i had time...

chorus

ad lib

please can you explain what happened?

you took a life and broke my heart is it my fault don't say it was fate

tell me why you broke us apart

tell me why you broke us apart...
