

Yana Kay, Run away

You better run away, run away.
You better run away, run away.
You better run away, run away.
You better run away, run away.
You know and I know the rules
of this cruel game.

Nothing we can do if love
wants to fade away.

I look into your eyes and see the trace of emptiness when your breath is so cold I feel
I have to say.

You better run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you to stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

Run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.

Only for you, my candle burned.

Now I snuffed it out.

I have no worries any more.

I've cleared my doubt.

Don't try to tell me that I'm still a part of your life.

I'm turning around. You won't see
the tears in my eyes.

You better run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you to stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

Run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you to stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

You better run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you to stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

Run away, run away
from my heart.

I don't want you to stay.

Better run away, run away
from my life.

Things will never be the same.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.

You better run away, run away.
