

Yasmine, Weak

I cant stop the rain from falling
Or hold the sunshine in my hand
Just as I cant stop this beating of my heart
And I could not resist you from the start..
When our eyes met for the first time
Felt like the earth began to move
No I cant justify why I am here with you
All I know it feels the way it should..
I am weak...
I get weak,cause the feeling gets too strong
I am flying so high,still I could be wrong
I am weak...
Chances are,in the morning therell be lies
But right now,baby I get weak
As I look into your eyes
I cant stop the wind from blowing
Or take the moon out of the sky
Just as I cant stop the way you make me feel
Is this an illusion;or is it real...
I get weak,cause the feeling gets too strong
I am flying so high,still I could be wrong
I am weak...
Chances are,in the morning therell be lies
But right now,I get weak...
I get weak, cause the feeling gets too strong...
