

Yazz, Bring Your Love Down

You say its time to leave now babe I cant believe
That you have the strength to go now
I wont stand in your way
Id be standing there all day
Aint that something we both know now
You play your games but the fact remains
Im the only one that can hold your reins

Chorus

Didnt I bring your love down
Didnt I bring your love down all night
If you think you need a change well Im sure we can arrange
For all you to get on your own for a while
But I dont need to worry cause youll get back in a hurry
I know that you like my style
You play your games but the fact remains
Im the only one that can hold your reins

Chorus

Didnt I bring your love down
Didnt I bring your love down all night
