

Year Of The Rabbit, Absent Stars

Don't you get all ashamed
Don't you dare
I've got all I can take anywhere
Dive in slow, hesitate
Door is gone
Try to step in the way
Of your fall

But I can't break out
From this blanket of doubt
Got me trapped in a maze of shadow
'Cause this gravity haze
Has blocked up my way
Am I floating inside your dream

Pull me out now
Pull me out
Pull me out now
Pull me out

Don't you get all afraid
Don't you dare
I've had all I can take everywhere
Can't make sense in the light
Door is gone
Try to step in the way
Of your fall

But I can't break out
From this blanket of doubt
Got me trapped in a maze of shadow
'Cause this gravity haze
Has blocked up my way
Am I floating inside your dream

Can I just fall out
Through absent stars
A terror in this frail haggard night
Can I just jump out
From this satellite
The sky is burning up
Yeah
Yeah
