

Year Of The Rabbit, Hold Me Up

If I'm trying to be hidden,
You still see me.
If my faith has been turned into fear.
If my whole world is crashing,
It won't matter.
I can keep it together if you're here.

Cause you are the one
Who holds me up when I come down.
You are the one who I can trust.
You are the one
Who holds me up when I fall down.
You are the one who I can trust.

If my dreams start to crumble,
You won't worry.
If my heart starts to sink into fear.
If my whole plan just shatters,
It won't matter.
I can keep it together if you're here.

Cause you are the one
Who holds me up when I come down.
You are the one who I can trust.
You are the one
Who holds me up when I fall down.
You are the one who I can trust.

You are the one I can trust.
You are the one I can trust.
