

Year Of The Rabbit, Strange Eyes

Did you just say that
We are going out there
The panic swells
My mouth is dry

Slowly get up
Sneak out the back door
To make you understand
I don't want to go

You're living door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
No one you know

You want to stop that pain
They'll never let you stay
Strange eyes
No one you know

Did you just tell me
We are going out there
I can't show the stress
I can't show the fear

An invitation
We can see the whole world
What can I say
I don't want to go

You're living door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
No one you know

You want to stop that pain
They'll never let you stay
One place
More than a day

You're selling door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
Black desert rose

You want to stop being sick
They'll never let you care

Oh its the only way
I'll ever find a reason
Do I really havd a reason
Oh I need you to say
That I really am a reason
Do I really have a reason

If I've given you anything
Say it
If you're feeling anything
Say it
Say it
