Years & Years, Hypnotized

such a cold cold song of sirens soothe me mind in the cold cold night .. take it all the fortune says: Flowers bloom with no regrets"

surrounded me body and soul pull me into the glow make me oblige and bound me spilling gold as the story unfolds in your touch who can bring me into life just one look it took my heart has been hypnotized

I know the place where it's always so perfect and blue and the voices make believe me it's all for you

who can bring me into life just one look it took
