

Yeasayer, Henrietta

A pair in the night, and the troubles come on,
But you would survive, just like nobody does.
____ turning red, light cold on the bed,
And now ____ out, there's not the end.

You are a bound, we're shopping our tea
For magnificent drum, _____
You're making them rich, they throw you away
The magic is gone, but you're here to stay.

____ too weak, and darkens the speech
The walls are ?high? love and sacrifice

Oh, Henrietta, we can live on forever
