Yello, The Rhythm Divine

You know that my tears Have kept me awake The longer you're gone I'll hunger and shake From warsaw to rome I'll wait out of time With you in my heart The rhythm divine

So won't you come close Bring this to an end With each winter rose My love I will send So tender the night When you hold me tight With you in my heart The rhythm divine

With you in my heart The rhythm divine

You know that these tears Have kept me awake The longer you're gone I'll hunger and shake From warsaw to rome I'll wait out of time With you in my heart The rhythm divine The rhythm divine The rhythm divine

With you in my heart The rhythm divine
