

Yello, There Is No Reason

You know that my tears have kept me awake
the longer you're gone I'll hunger and shake.
From Warsaw to Rome I'll wait out of time
with you in my heart - the rhythm divine.
So won't you come close bring this to an end
with each winter rose my love I will send.
So tender the night when you hold me tight
with you in my heart - the rhythm divine.
You know that these tears have kept me awake

...
the rhythm divine
the rhythm divine.
with you in my heart - the rhythm divine.
