

Yellow 5, Heart Break Insomnia

i'll put my life
on the line
along with place and time just to save the ones who said they could
who gave it their all
just to live
for the next day
im not crazy im just blinded by you

all night im starring
in the darkness
cause i cant get to sleep you are racing through my head i cant believe i broke down over something so little so stupid
ive lost my mind
somehow we'll be back
in eachothers arms

The man who said he could
For, the man who said he should
For, the man who said he would
And i, always wanted to be him

(chorus)
here's to the night i went to far here's to the pain i caused your heart now it's good-bye cause you arent here you ignore me like im not there but i'll always remember what we had
