

Yellow 5, I Threw Me Away

Locked away in a cage
My rage got the best of me
Time finds a way
To leave more of me behind
Im losing this fight upstairs
It's taking a toll on my system

(chorus)

Everyone crawls to someone
But I crawl to no one
Because nobody pushes me up
She left a mark in my heart
Like a footprint in mud
I'll never let it go

My talents are so overrated
And my thoughts so complicated
When I open my eyes it's all gone
Not like it was ever here
They say there's someplace I belong
Just so I lie to myself

(chorus)

(chorus)

Throw it all away
Lets separate the losers from the users
What do I have to hope for?
Why do I even try?
Laughed at religion long ago
Doubt I'll be an angel when I die
