

Yellow Claw, Good Day (ft. DJ Snake & Elliphant)

You make me feel like all those kids
That were supposed to stay the night
But changed their mind and called their mommy
You are not me
I am dirty

Remember that day we met
For a coffee and you were late
We shat all about you
And you mostly
But a bit about me
And then now we back to yours
And I never been there before
On the blue line subway
Yeah, I think I was raining
You made me a painting
Sing a song about dolphins
Young love was calling

It was a good day
What a good day!
But it is long gone now
When all the stars fall down
It was a good day
What a good day!
That day you broke my heart
I loved you way too hard
Now I'm free

Remember so well
That time
When I found a dog
I thought you'd be cool
No cool at all
When you opened the door
Come on
You said I was your soulmate
And I was there on my way
On the blue line subway
And I think it was snowing
'Cause the city was glowing
Yes, I started to notice
Young love was broken

It was a good day
What a good day!
But it is long gone now
When all the stars fall down
It was a good day
What a good day!
That day you broke my heart
Now I'm free
