

Yellow Second, Fall Out Of Time

walking it hand in hand and free while you're impacted don't you go and abandon me when i'm distracted begin again and i'll be fine what'd you mean to say? i'm having a most difficult time hearing you today come on up why are you waiting? do i have to say i'm sorry?
would you consider staying another day in spite of the things i've been saying?
so i can make it right don't fall out of line so name the place i'll meet you there you stopped and then said but i wasn't going anywhere, how'd that get in your head?
how soon do i forget
i must be slow
haven't got it yet
do what i must, i guess that's fair but i face it with dread can i be candid
angry and honest
insubordinate, too?
look where we've landed see where you've brought us i'm losing faith in you
