

Yellow Second, Forget What You've Heard

i need to start up again something to get me excited places where i've never been i need to begin take me through the open door where to go cannot conceive but i know that i can't stay here i need somebody to see someone to believe that i can do something more after a while you could forget what you've heard another mile, but know i meant every word stay here with me, while i am passionate yet for i won't live a life ordinary in regret i need the sun on my face warm me up to the idea quickenning every pace revealing a place where i can be satisfied i'm often in sight
i wanna be there
there's no greater height of this i'm aware
never before today
even outside a dream did so far away it seem from where i sit a mile high i could give up i could go on
