Yellowcard, Star Struck

You think i won't ever get too far

Where is your inspiration, you lost it oh so long ago

(I, Get, Too far)

Where is your inspiration, you lost it, oh so long ago so much for innovation, I saw this coming long before You had no motivation, your hopes are high but trapped below, This constant competition, we've won but you're still keeping score But I grew up, wishing on a star (Wishing, on, a star) You think I won't ever get too far. (I, Get, Too far) So high on dedication, it feels so good to get away, From all this repetition, this angry town, this battleground So now we'll break tradition, we'll leave you swimming in our wake Without your inspiration, you won't survive, you'll surely drown But I grew up, wishing on a star (Wishing, on, a star) You think I won't ever get too far (I, Get, Too far) So now i am wishing on a star (Wishing, on, a star) You think I won't ever get too far (I, Get, Too far) But I grew up, wishing on a star (Wishing, on, a star) You think I won't ever get too far (I, Get, Too far) So now i am wishing on a star (Wishing, on, a star)
