

Yes, Mind Drive

Don't forget to seek out the world that you want to stake out

Actions speak much louder than words

And you get to realize

Just as long as you have control, holding the fire

Just as long as you keep control, this point of your desire

Wait as it will all come to you

Feel it as a mutual response

You get the heaven you like

You get the heaven

You get the heaven you need

You get to heaven now

Just as long as you bring the power from the inside

Just as long as you hold the key from the inside

Ascend and create

Ascend and create

Ascension

They will bring you rain

They will move the sky

They will give you light

It will live you long

Thru' the eyes of child

Through the song of songs

It will bring the moon

It will transfer you

Whole, pushing for the time to call

Dancing on the moon, giving it out

In the night of nights

It will shine for you

With the wings of flight

They will make it thru'

Through the eyes of child and the test of song

It will comfort you

It will make you feel

Whole, looking for the chance to call

Making your world, independently

Whole, watching for the place to run

Dancing, dancing, move

We will make it right

We will dance for you

On this night of nights

They will make it thru'

Through the eyes of child and the wish you are

As the thought that comes from a distant star

Whatever thought you have

Can become a new dream

For the perfect stance

Take you there and back again

And you believe you are

Independently, Whole

Waiting for the signs, Whole

Reaching for the foresight shown

Whole, dancing for the moon, dancing for the light

Whole, pushing for the mind drive, drive

Dancing for the Earth, dancing for the light

Whole

Dancing for the light

They will bring the rain

They will make it right

It will transfer you, each and every night

With their wings of hope, they will cover you

They will make it right, they will shine for you
With their golden wings, close around your soul
It will count for you, it will make you whole
Thru' the eyes of child, and the song of songs
It will make you move, it will transfer you

And so it comes to this now
When you walk into the bliss that
Holds down the fire
As pleasure will devine
So close so let your heart enter
So come and let your heart enter this
So close and let yourself lose control
Heaven help the love that you send
Heaven has the love you send, free

Whole, watching for the time to call
Dancing in the light, making it right
Dancing, dancing, whole
Waiting for the signs, whole
Reaching for the sight to show
Whole, independently, whole
Pushing for the mind drive, drive
Dancing on the Earth, dancing in the light

They will bring the rain, they will shine the light
Understanding this, it can come tonight
For the love of love and the answers to
It begins with me, it begins with you
Whole, pushing for the time to call
Looking for the sign, making it right
Dancing, dancing, whole
Waiting for the time to call
Dancing in the harmless sun
Entering the mind drive

Don't forget to seek out the world that you want to stake out
Actions speak much louder than words
And you get to realise
Just as long as you have control, holding the fire
Just as long as you get to keep, this point of your desire
Wait as it will come to you
Feel it as a mutual response
You get the heaven you like
You get to heaven
You get the heaven you need
You get to heaven now
