

Yes, Run With The Fox

Now the season, Now the question
Time to breathe a moment's grace
For the Hunter and the Hunted
Taking time to break the pace

Are you hopeful? Are you haunted
By the ghost of Christmas Past?
Face the future undaunted
Step aside or take your chance

Run with the Fox
Into the wind
Unto the dawn of tomorrow

Run with the Fox
Into the wild
Into the wild in the fold

Beware of the rocks
And be prepared
Prepare for love comes and goes

Run with the Fox

Every year the revolution
One more lost before begun
While we fight our mass confusion
Thus we walk before we run

Run with the Fox
Into the wind
Onto the dawn of tomorrow

Run with the Fox
Into the wild
Into the wild in the cold

Beware of the rocks
And be prepared
Prepare, for love finally grows

Ahh... Ahh... Ahhh....

Let us live to tell a story
Here on Earth and out in Space
Foreward on the road to glory
History records the chase

Have yourselves that certain Christmas
Eat, be glad, and drink the wine
Leave your sadness by the river
Giving love and given time.

Ahh... Ahhh...

Across the ice of frozen lakes
