

Yesterdays Rising, Our Lucid Dream

can i sail far across the seas? will you let me do as i please?
if i could do this again would i even go? would i even, would i go?
i have this ocean of dreams in front of me ill swim to the sun and cast no shadows i have this ocean if dreams in front of me swim to the sun-its a waste to fall i wont let go of this now we cast no shadows in the dark and as we embark on a journey in our dreams well find our true ending lets go lets go lets go were swimming to the sun we wont let go
cast away
were swimming to the sun.
