

Yngwie Malmsteen, Attack!!

Living large, living free
Living the life that dreams are made of Dying proud, dying free
Dying the death of heroes

But what you've done now
Makes me want to cry
You keep on pushing
Well now you've pushed too far
You must die now
You must die now

Once we were free
Living in perfect harmony
It's much too late
And now there's no turning back

Attack
Attack
Attack

Out of the blue
Out of the sky
The world comes crashing down
Now it's out of true
We've been blown sky high
And the king has lost his crown

We must be fearless
And be relentless
Kill these insects
Show no mercy
You must die now
You must die now
Once we were free
Living in perfect harmony
It's much too late
And now there's no turning back

Attack
Attack
Attack

Once we were free
Living in perfect harmony
It's much too late
And now there's no turning back

Attack
Attack
Attack
