

Yngwie Malmsteen, Bad Reputation

Well, you must reap
What you have sown
You're into deep
You're standing alone
What you have done
Can't be undone
Hear what they say
They're talking about you
It's time to pay
Pay for your dues
You must be strong
You know they are wrong
Enduring Lies
They will die like flies
Whether the storm
Always, above the norm
Just listen to them
Saying
You've got a bad reputation
Bad reputation
You've got a bad reputation
They're quick to judge
And they drew first blood
They held a grudge
And dragged your name through the mud
What they have done
Can't be undone
You sleep with the devil
They say you've been had You're living in peril
They say you've gon mad
They're looking at you
saying
You've got a bad reputation
Bad reputation
You've got a bad reputation
Bad reputation
Hit me with your best shot
Just do your worst
But Ha, I've got the jackpot Baby
And I'll always be first
You've got a bad reputation
Bad reputation
You've got a bad reputation
Bad reputation
