

Yngwie Malmsteen, Catch 22

Well You're damned if you do

You're damned if you don't

Catch 22

You're so Very close, Yet so far

You gave your best shot

Still no cigar

Working your fingers down to the bone

Running with sinners, your life's just on loan

Catch 22

They say you can

They say that you can't

Catch 22

The Limits the sky

But they lock you inside

You're livin' a lie

You'll never know why

Workin' your fingers down to the bone

Running with sinners, your life's just a loan

Catch 22

Catch 22

You think you will win

But you always lose

Catch 22

They think they're so strong

They think they are so wise

You know they are wrong

They tread on thin ice

Working your fingers down to the bone

Running with sinners

Your life is just a loan
