

Yngwie Malmsteen, No Mercy

"You say you're always right and I'm wrong
You tell me I am weak and you are strong
Always tried so hard
Now you've gone too far
I'll give all or nothing now to play my cards.
You pretend it's for fun
In the end when it's done
You might say it's a game
But I will show no mercy.
You talk so much but you don't have a clue
You lie so much you even think it's true
Now I'm in the lead
Want to see you bleed
Say goodbye I am forever in control.
You must learn oh so well
You shall burn in my hell
You might say it's a game
I will show no mercy.
And now it's said and done it's all completed
You think you've won you know you are defeated
Now it's all so clear
I'm your greatest fear
You have lived a lie be prepared to die.
You must learn oh so well
You shall burn in my hell
You might say it's a game
I will show no mercy.
