

Yngwie Malmsteen, Riot In The Dungeons

Locked up in chains, backs to the wall tick like a time bomb till we hear the call Pushed from outside, thrown underground frozen in time we wait for the sound

Chorus

Oh-I feel something coming
Feels like a Riot in the Dungeon Trapped behind bars Prisoners of Death
All hope is ours, we can't give up yet Ready to fight to get what we need die on your feet or live on your knees

Chorus

Oh-I feel something coming
Feels like a Riot in the Dungeon
you stand and die or start your running cause there's a Riot on the Dungeon It's got to give it's gonna break Dying to live, our freedom's at stake Beating the odds with our hearts and blood we won't give in till they've had enough

Chorus

Oh-I feel something coming
Feels like a Riot in the Dungeon
you stand and die or start your running
cause there's a Riot on the Dungeon
