

Yngwie Malmsteen, Rising Force

Out of the darkness the voices are calling riding the wings of a song
The Fury is screaming and Heaven is falling
I feel it coming on strong

*Chorus*

The Lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and sparks in the Heart of the Dark
I hear a Rising Force
Searching my soul I find something else
I take my life in my hands
From the gates of Heaven to the altars of Hell
The Power is at my command

*Chorus*

The Lightning strikes cracking the night
I'm not the same anymore
Thunder and spark in the Heart of the Dark
I feel a Rising Force
Burned by the Glory of a Sacred fire a Rising force starts to shine alone in the inferno it soars ever higher leaving the demons behind

*Chorus*

The Lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and sparks in the Heart of the Dark
I hear a Rising Force

*Chorus*

The Lightning strikes cracking the night
I'm not the same anymore
Thunder and spark in the Heart of the Dark
I feel a Rising Force
