

Yngwie Malmsteen, Sacrifice

Before my eyes the world is falling
But through all lies
I feel my calling
They always said that I can't do it
But even so I walked right through it.
Why can't you see
The way that it must be
You think you're so strong
You know that you are wrong.
Come on woman
Just gimme a touch
You gotta know I'm not asking too much
Once a king always a king
All I want is everything.
You always thought that you were so cool
You used to say that I was a fool
And all this time you were just a tool
You couldn't see that I made the rules.
I have to feel
I know this is for real
I gotta live
I want all you can give.
Come on woman
Just gimme a touch
You gotta know I'm not asking too much
Once a king always a king
All I want is everything.
