

Yngwie Malmsteen, Ship Of Fools

When the rats are bailing out
And you are just signing on
Then you turned and walked away
There is no love lost here, my friend

But you have made a great mistake
You ate the hook, the sink and bait
Now you can't get out
It's much too late

The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
And on and on and on

But I can be merciless for sure
And you'll sail for many moons
I can't believe you lost your mind
I'll watch you falling down, again

You have been living in a dream
And I can hear the same old theme
But nothing's ever what it seems

The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
And on and on and on

The truth is always hard to face
Especially when you are in that place,
Like the ship of fools

The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
And on and on and on

The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
The ship of fools keep sailing on
And on and on and on
