

Yngwie Malmsteen, The Only One

I've never killed another man
I've never lived the master plan
I can only pray that we'll survive
With every sin and whitened line,
I see the future slipping by
The time is nearing, what have we done
Is there a reason? Someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Time will Tell
I will
The hands of time we can't turn back
Have we all slipped through the cracks
Lord have mercy, forgive us all
Is there a reason? Someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Time will Tell
I will
There's no use looking back
Everything's turning black
Time's running out for us all
