Yo La Tengo, Saturday

The room was filled with talk For anyone listening I found a spot by the door With no one around

Let my mind go Out of tune Out of tune

I kept a smile on my face For anyone looking Tried to turn away questions Before he asked

Let my mind go Out of tune Out of tune

I was engrossed in the film Without really watching Said, "who's the guy with the gun?" As if I was involved

Let my mind go Out of tune Out of tune
