

Yodelice, Keep Running

We're running, running, tell me what we're running from

Is it something, something too hard to overcome?

Yes, we're running, running, no matter what the cost

Searching, searching to find the hope that we have lost

'Cause love is around the next corner

In the eyes of a child, and the smile of a mother

But, it's nothing, nothing without a little trust

Hearts of gold sometimes turn to rust

Hm-hm-hm-hm

Hm-hm-hm-hm

So, keep running, running, let the waves carry me (hm-hm-hm-hm)

The storm is turning, turning, the cloud's going out to see (hm-hm-hm-hm)

There is no place to go where the vows won't follow us (hm-hm-hm-hm)

Long after these roads have turned to dust (hm-hm-hm-hm)

Hm-hm-hm-hm

Hm-hm-hm-hm
