

Yoko Kanno, Butterfly

You're a love song
Only half-way sung
You're the knot that comes undone
Dressed as darkest night
The flight of a stringless kite
The very vision
The mirage man
You're air in the palm of my hand
You're like catching
The day's sunset
O rain that's never wet
You're a butterfly in the mind
You're a butterfly before my eyes
You're a butterfly, a trick of time
Who leaves before he arrives
You're a butterfly in the mind
You're a butterfly before my eyes
You're a butterfly, who says he's mine
Who leaves before he arrives
