

Yoko Kanno, You Make Me Cool

What can I tell you, this guy you see
Can't help feeling
So cool, hip, and so free.
I don't believe in getting hooked on love, no not me!
You can't persuade me to play your game.
You turn your nose up whenever I do the same.
The way to move is all so smooth and cool.
I know you want to hold me, cool kat.
Just leave me drinking this bar tonight.
I know you want me to make you make me feel right.
But all you do is hang your head so low.
I know you really want me to go.
Why can't you please understand what kind of man I've got to be?
You're saying I'm such a fool,
You're right, and it's driving you wild!
I'm sorry I'm a cool kat baby.
You can't persuade me to play your game.
You turn your nose up whenever I do the same.
The way to move is all so smooth and cool.
I know you want to hold me, cool kat.
