

Yoko Ono, Where Do We Go From Here

Where do we go from here.
Where do we go from here,
Where do we go from here.
If we sweep the bottom of the rivers
We find bodies that shouldn't be there.
If we sweep the courts and offices
We find heads that shouldn't be there.

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well,
Cats on the hill, ready to kill.

Where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here? where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
If we sweep the shelters and asylums,
We'll find women that shouldn't be there.
If we sweep the dark streets and alleys,
We'll find dealers that shouldn't be there.

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well,

Cats on the hill, ready to kill.

Why do we miss you so if you're just a speck of dust?

Are we getting tired of blood and horror?
Are we getting ready for God and terror?
Are we getting tired of blood and horror?
Are we getting ready for God and terror?
Are we getting tired of blood and horror? (where do we go from here?)
Are we getting ready for God and terror? (where do we go from here?)

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well,
Cats on the hill, ready to kill.
Dingdong hell, pussy in the well,
Cats on the hill, ready to kill.
Dingdong hell, pussy in the well,
Cats on the hill, ready to kill.
Ready to, ready to, ready to, ready to, ready to, ready to,

Where do we go from here?
