

Yolanda Adams, Darling Girl

(Verse 1)

A night flight out to D.C.
Phone rings with the news
My God I'm so excited
It's time to look for baby shoes(yes)
Everyone says I'm glowing
From a heart filled with joy
To soon to be showing
Is it a girl is it a boy

(Chorus)

Found out your My Darling Girl
Don't you know you change my world
Your my little doll so sweet
You nearly knock me off my feet
Your my little darling child seeing you makes me smile
God Bless the day he sent my little angel to me

(Verse 2)

Here's my favorite picture
When you were 10 minutes old
And we were right there with ya
To wrap you up and keep you warm
And now that your a little older
I see your personality
And every time that I hold ya
I'm sure you'll know much more than me

(Chorus)

Cause your My little Darling Girl
Don't you know you change my world
Your my little doll so sweet
You nearly knock me off my feet
Your my little darling child seeing you makes me smile
God Bless the day he sent my little angel to me

(Verse 3)

And you were perfect from the first day
They getting tired of hearing me say
I'm not ashamed to stand up and tell
The world that your my my my baby girl oh
Ladadadadada
Ladada dada dada dada
Hanging tight with your mama
Traveling round the globe
Telling folks about Jesus
And how he came to save their souls
Obviously what's important(yeah)
Gotta keep teaching you
Gotta be your example
That shows his life in all I do

(Chorus)

You are My Darling, Darling Girl
Don't you know you change my world
Your my little doll so sweet
You nearly knock me off my feet
Your my little darling child you know I love to see you smile and
God Bless the day he sent my little angel to me
Oh Yes God Bless the day he sent my little angel to me...

(Yolanda talking to baby)

You go say something ? come on say something..... yeah..
