

Yonder Mountain String Band, Rambler's Anthem

I've seen the setting sun in California
Her mountain winds they howl and moan
And I've seen that half-moon rising up above
To the sound of the train that'll carry me home

Chorus:

I've been a-roamin' (I've been a-roamin')
I've been a-ramblin' (I've been a-ramblin')
Thirty days on the road, baby I'll be home soon

Now it's been a month or more here since I've seen you
When I left home in the middle of the night
Well it was wrong to leave, but I've been good since I've been gone
And I'm coming back to put things right

(Chorus)

For my whole life I've heard the highway calling
Spent most of it between two white lines
Now I don't want to wind up alone
So I'm bound to change my ramblin' mind

(Chorus - x2)
