Yonder Mountain String Band, Rambler's Anthem

I've seen the setting sun in California Her mountain winds they howl and moan And I've seen that half-moon rising up above To the sound of the train that'll carry me home

Chorus: I've been a-roamin' (I've been a-roamin') I've been a-ramblin' (I've been a-ramblin') Thirty days on the road, baby I'll be home soon

Now it's been a month or more here since I've seen you When I left home in the middle of the night Well it was wrong to leave, but I've been good since I've been gone And I'm coming back to put things right

(Chorus)

For my whole life I've heard the highway calling Spent most of it between two white lines Now I don't want to wind up alone So I'm bound to change my ramblin' mind

(Chorus - x2)
