

Yoomii, Teenage Love

When I saw you at the schoolyard.
I knew it right from the start.
Your love is all I like for every day
Well, I can't get no sleep at night time,
Cause all I think of this that your mine
So catch me I am falling hear me say.
I can not believe its true but I guess I love you!
It's just another teenage love
I 'm looking to the sky above
It's just another ordinary, loves some teenage love
It's just another teenage love
It's happen I can't get enough
It's just another hearten breaking, hopeless teenage love.
Oh, every second every minute
I feel there is no limit
I never thought that love could be so strong
Now all I wanted to believe it
Is that the feelings get a peace
I don't know what could be right
when this is wrong
I can not believe its true but I guess I love you!
It's just another teenage love
I 'm looking to the sky above
It's just another ordinary, loves some teenage love
It's just another teenage love
It's happen I can't get enough
It's just another hearten breaking, hopeless teenage love.
Teenage love
Sky above
Ordinary loves some teenage love
It's just another teenage love
I 'm looking to the sky above
It's just another ordinary, knows some teenage love
It's just another teenage love
It's happen I can't get enough
It's just another hearten breaking, hopeless teenage love.
It's just another teenage love
