

You me at six, Lived A Lie

Well, somebody told me
That I would be a dreamer for life
Well, somebody told me
I would never reach the other side.

Well, you say old news
You cross your fingers and you're to lose
What if I told you,
That things will never improve.

And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I could burn out bright
So I can burn,
So I can burn.

The grass is always greener
Someone else's past is always cleaner
But I'm a believer
It doesn't fool all of us.

And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I could burn out bright

No, I don't really know where I must go
No, I don't really know where I must go
So, I lived a lie
For just tonight, tonight

We are believers /15x

We are, we are

And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I could burn out bright
And If I lived a lie
Would someone meet me on the other side
So I could burn out bright

No, I don't really know where I must go
No, I don't really know where I must go
So, I lived a lie
For just tonight
And burn out bright
