

You're Pretty, No More To Be Said

Don't talk I need you to listen
And hear me out
Cause I've been silent too long
Watching all this go so long

So tonight you'll find yourself
Alone in your bed

It's so hard accepting this is truth now
But we know it's right
So let's not make this harder
By staying together longer

So tonight you'll find yourself
Alone in your bed
No more to be said

I want to feel your warmth tonight
But that will make me seem colder
Tomorrow when I look at you
And say that it's over

Don't talk I need you to listen
Cause this hurts like hell
This is the worst thing I've had to do
Admitting I don't love you

So tonight you'll find yourself
Alone in your bed
No more to be said

No more talking, crying, pleading, begging to me

So tonight in the dark
When you're lying alone
Please don't wait for me

So tonight in the dark
Will you find it in your heart
And forgive me
