

Young Stadium Club, Too Late

It's Too Late
To go back
Too Late
To phone you
I don't know it wasn't right

We had precious time
Feel strange deep inside
All lost, what we did

When the love has gone away

Too hard to prove now
My heart still love you
You are unfrozen one
No we have sleepless night
Summer rain and harm
I'm sorry
What I've done

When the love has gone
When the love has gone away

Lost what we had
Make me want to cry
I will not forget
I can even live for you

When the love has gone
When the love has gone away
