

Young Stoner, No Surprise (feat. Don Toliver & B

Look me in my eyes
Know I keep the .40 tucked, this is no surprise
Perky in the double cup, creepin' with my slime
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright
I drop the roof, yeah, yeah, I drop the roof (Yeah)
Lil' shawty loose, yeah, yeah, lil' shawty loose
Look me in my eye
Oh, I keep the .40 tucked, yeah, it's no surprise
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright

This pill I took is iffy, but my bitch say it's alright
Thirty minutes later, I told lil' mama, "Surprise"
"I wanna fuck you"
True to my religion, horseshoe
Number one stunner, don't burn out the slammer with me and lil' Gunna (Gunna)
Uh, I pop me a Perc' and have half of two Xannys for all of this trauma (All of this trauma)
Demons leave me alone, I been in the G5 'lone (G5 'lone)
I'm comin' with Nia Long, ballin' on these bitches like Neo Chopp' in the top, drankin' on lemonade mixed with Act'
Number one album, I ain't going back and forth, I ain't going back
I'ma have my poker faces on
I wake up to her leavin' every morning

Look me in my eyes
Know I keep the .40 tucked, this is no surprise
Perky in the double cup, creepin' with my slime
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright
I drop the roof, yeah, yeah, I drop the roof (Yeah)
Lil' shawty loose, yeah, yeah, lil' shawty loose
Look me in my eye
Oh, I keep the .40 tucked, yeah, it's no surprise
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright

Today's a good day
To roll my money long, keep my head high, it's comin' my way
With the top chopped out, music on loud, bumpin' Sade
With a breeze in the wind when you call my name, call my—
This shit no comparison, I'm a stone-cold stunner (Yeah)
Whenever I went to sleep, better have my nine tucked under Lil' shawty in all my stash to count that money all summer
Whenever I beat that back, better have them thighs on thunder

Look me in my eyes
Know I keep the .40 tucked, this is no surprise
Perky in the double cup, creepin' with my slime
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright
I drop the roof, yeah, yeah, I drop the roof (Yeah)
Lil' shawty loose, yeah, yeah, lil' shawty loose
Look me in my eye
Oh, I keep the .40 tucked, yeah, it's no surprise
I might get way too comfortable, but everything's alright

Switchin' the plan, and I told 'em I'm doin' my thing
Yeah, it's alright
Youngin' in charge, and I ran up my numbers
I told 'em, "I'ma live my life"
I'm with roadrunners, takin' private jets
We flyin' on the clouds in the sky
Number one album, these niggas be cappin'
These niggas ain't really been fly
Meet 'round the corner, I pass her some bundles
She servin' your uncle
She want Gunna Wunna, she want King Spider
Don't look up to idols, I'm bigger than Midas

She cross out the name, no need for no title
I'm givin' 'em verses like it was a Bible
I came from the jungle where we had a rival
These diamonds, they glaciers like a icy tower
