

Your Best Friend, I'm Ready

The rain slides down my window(pane),
Pain is filling up my heart...
We've got to get off this merry-go-round,
And finish this at the (start)...

Start over baby, I don't mean to sound crazy,
But the only way that we can stay...
Is trusting you and trusting me,
And breathing brutal honesty...
For you and me,
To finally be...
Happy again...

Our ocean's waves crash to the shore,
But you can rest assure...
That there's no doubt they'll be back for more,
I want you back...

Here in my arms, free from harm,
I'll be everything you need...
And I deserve the chance for you to remember me,
Remember who I am...

I'm ready...
