

Your Demise, Born A Snake

Born a fucking snake and die one too,
You hate your life and the world, lucky cause it hates you too.
Two faces, liar and a gutless fool,
Making enemies of people you call friends.

Into the void, that's where you'll stay.
You'll stay!
Into the void, that's where you'll stay.
You'll stay!

A life of nothing in that place you call home,
You hang on to past memories and remind yourself each day that everything's okay,
But you can hear it coming closer,
I just think it's time that you stepped in the way.

A snake just scared of its own bite,
So sink your teeth into my fucking neck.
Into my fucking neck.
A snake just scared of its own bite,
So sink your teeth into my fucking neck.

A knife in my back, just leave it there
To remind me of the spineless kid you are.
"Dead end nights" - is that all you got?
Is that all you got?
A knife in my back, just leave it there
To remind me of the spineless kid you are.
"Dead end nights" - is that all you got?
Is that all you got?

Born a fucking snake and die one too,
You hate your life and the world, lucky cause it hates you too.
Two faces, liar and a gutless fool,
Making enemies of people you call friends.

Into the void, that's where you'll stay.
You'll stay!
Into the void, that's where you'll stay.
Dead to me
Motherfucker
