

Your Demise, Karma

I'm so cold, or so I've been told.
Everything happens for a reason.
I think I could get used to you,
But I never knew, karma is all around me.
Karma is all around

Some is good, the rest is bad...
Just live my life a good person.
A good person

I've shared pages with these devils,
Stood on stages with these saints burning holes in the backs...
Bitch, don't kill my vibe.
Yeah, bitch, don't kill my vibe.

One thing about music, when it hits you feel no pain.
Take a shot at everybody and leave them fuckin' lame.

But I've learned cunts make it far,
So fuck it, I'll let you all know:
You drag me down, my stomach turns;
You?ll make it far, or so I've fuckin' learned.

I don't say a word, just let the world revolve around you,
Crawled up inside every motherfucker.
Every motherfucker is a sucker,
Just like the last cigarette you ever have.
Just a whore to all these dreams, just so you know:
I never slept, or lived my life on my knees.
